Scripture Cat is written from the perspective of a family cat (Oliver) who had been rescued from a dumpster by a Christian family. He soon realizes the truth of the Word of the Bible as he sits in their laps while his human Mom and Dad read their daily morning devotionals. Everyone notices the calming effect the passages have over his wild-self, including Oliver. He begins to understand the power of what is being read aloud and who Jesus is. Join Oliver as he discovers these truths and what it looks like for him as he applies them to his daily life that he shares with this family and two odd and distinctly different dogs named Libby and Lola. This relatable character will win the hearts of children by inspiring and teaching the Biblical principles that we all are meant to know. Parents will feel good about their children reading this book series as the stories mirror true challenges middle year readers face. Inner conflict, acceptance, obedience and disciplines are addressed in a comical and whimsical way.
