Imminent is a complete stand-alone novel and a bonus spin-off of the Among Us Trilogy.

If you have been following the trilogy, you'll notice that in this story you will, through the eyes of new characters, ordinary American citizens, see how the government's implementation of a microchip program has impacted the nation. On an added note, the timeline in Imminent is parallel with the period of time between books 2 and 3 in the Among Us Trilogy.

If you are reading the Among Us Trilogy, here is the suggested reading order:

Doubt, book 1

Resist, book 2

Imminent (standalone)

Reveal, book 3.

Is this the end of the world? Are the predictions in the Book of Revelations coming true?

Outcasts from different parts of society, ethnicity, and beliefs are being drawn together. Coincidence? In this paranormal mystery thriller, people with extra gifts, such as intelligence, psychic abilities, supernatural powers, fight to fit into society. Living their safe lives, they cannot ignore what is happening around them. They sense something odd in the world. Sometimes they see things... people... that no one else sees. Their friends and family can't understand them. They can't understand themselves.

Natural disasters, severe weather, uprisings, global political upheaval and unrest cause instability around the world. First world countries government and economy destabilizes. Middle class families find themselves homeless struggling to survive.

Meanwhile in one-third world country the opposite is happening. Deserts turn into farmlands, abundance of clean water spring out of nowhere. Once impoverished nations, now rich and powerful nations. Their sudden richness in resources now makes them a super power. The richest of the rich want a piece of the wealth and make this third world country their home.

In the USA, a new president is elected. A tough republican who vows to bring America back to the status of 1st world super power. He promises to bring tough measures for a full recovery of the economy and their super powers. These include stripping down of all citizens' rights and privacy. All people are asked to be numbered in order to coordinate food and services to the people. Those refusing to be numbered are sought out by the government, captured, brainwashed and/or arrested.
