Si c'était à refaire... Une fraternité plus forte que la guerre d'Algérie (French Edition) Roger Winterhalter

Appelé du contingent, Roger Winterhalter est envoyé en Algérie en 1960. Il y découvre le chaos et reste vingt-sept mois pour y rétablir « l'ordre ». La découverte de l'horreur, la rencontre d'Algériens en quête d'indépendance et de paix, le lien d'amitié et de fraternité indéfectible qu'ils tissent ensemble, le décident à s'engager contre son propre camp, celui d'une armée française autoritaire et indifférente. Cinquante ans plus tard, il retrouve ses frères d'armes avec lesquels il partage ses souvenirs et dont il livre les témoignages : un message à celles et ceux qui, comme ces anciens combattants, luttent et militent pour mieux vivre ensemble.
