México: la difícil democracia (Spanish Edition) José Woldenberg

Un libro incisivo y penetrante que medita sobre los logros y los retos de la democracia en México.

México: la difícil democracia contiene el testimonio y el pensamiento político de uno de los artífices de la democracia mexicana. Su tema es justamente éste: la democracia como forma de gobierno, los principios políticos que la sustentan, la historia de la transición, los retos del sistema electoral mexicano, el contexto social en su relación con ese sistema y los principales obstáculos que enfrentan la equidad y el Estado de derecho en nuestro país.

México fue capaz de construir una democracia germinal. Motivadas por conflictos recurrentes, sus principales fuerzas políticas lograron desmontar un sistema autoritario de gobierno para dar paso a otro en el que se reproduce, contiene y convive la pluralidad política del país. Pero la democracia no es un puerto de llegada ni un sombrero de mago. Su consolidación y su futuro no están garantizados, y tampoco contiene las claves para resolver todos los problemas de México. Como fórmula de gobierno, la democracia se desarrolla en un marco plagado de retos y, por lo tanto, puede fortalecerse o desgastarse.
