Cómo multiplicar tu ministerio (Especialidades Juveniles) (Spanish Edition) Jonathan McKee

Cuando hablo con los líderes de jóvenes en los grandes eventos, veo la misma mirada en sus ojos. Es una mirada que dice: «Yo quiero hacer un evento así». Recibo llamadas telefónicas con regularidad de líderes de jóvenes de todo el país diciéndome: «Nunca hemos hecho algo así, pero quisiéramos hacer un gran evento evangelístico...» En un ochenta por ciento de los eventos a los que he ido a hablar cada año, pareciera como si el líder de jóvenes a cargo hubiera esperado un gran número de personas, pero solo llegó una cuarta parte de los que esperaba. El corazón está ahí y los motivos son puros, pero se queda corto en experiencia. Muchos líderes de jóvenes quisieran hacer esos monumentales eventos, solo si supieran cómo hacerlo. Ellos únicamente saben preparar sus eventos bajo experimentación. Necesitan recursos que no solo les enseñen lo básico en la programación de estos eventos, sino que además les brinden herramientas y ejemplos que en realidad funcionen. Este libro les ayudará a entender la mentalidad de este tipo de multitud y les proporcionará las herramientas para planificar programas efectivos de evangelismo. El libro les dará ejemplos de cómo NO HACER las cosas, al igual que les ofrecerá ideas listas para que los eventos funcionen. También les proveerá lo básico, como la importancia de diseñar alineando cada elemento con el propósito de los eventos. El blanco principal es todo líder de jóvenes que desea planificar programas semanales de evangelismo, grandes eventos o programas en los colegios. Una audiencia secundaria estaría integrada por líderes estudiantiles que desean aprender cómo organizar un club bíblico de veinte minutos durante el almuerzo dirigido a evangelizar. Los líderes de jóvenes serán los guardianes de esta audiencia, porque son ellos los que comprarían los libros para sus líderes estudiantiles.
