O anjo da história (Portuguese Edition) Walter Benjamin

Walter Benjamin (1892-1940), um dos mais importantes pensadores do século XX, viveu durante a expansão industrial europeia e sofreu com o terror da guerra nazista, que o perseguia por ser filho de judeus. Nesse contexto um tanto caótico, o filósofo captou a essência de sua época para refletir, ao longo de duas décadas, sobre o progresso e sobre a história. Suas ideias e teses sobre estes e outros assuntos estão reunidas nesta obra, com esmeradas tradução e edição de João Barrento.

Este compilado de dez ensaios traz ao leitor reflexões de Benjamin referentes a diversos temas, como sociedade, política, o conceito de história e sua filosofia, o vigor do materialismo histórico, uma necessária revisão da tradição, o uso do poder como forma de violência, a luta de classes, o fascismo alemão, o chamado progresso, iniciado a partir do industrialismo europeu, entre outros. Alguns de seus ensaios mais influentes estão reunidos neste volume: "Sobre o conceito de história"; "Fragmento teológico-político"; "Experiência e pobreza"; "Sobre a crítica do poder como violência" e "Destino e caráter", o que o torna uma obra de referência para historiadores, filósofos, cientistas políticos, entre outros.
