It's a nightmare from which she can't seem to wake up. With no name, no memory and no identification, she can only answer to the name given to her—Hope. In the hospital, she is befriended by an older woman who becomes her lifeline, but even "Aunt Ruby" is stunned when Hope shares the mysterious circumstances of her amnesia and the unexpected complication: she's pregnant. When Professor Daniel Donahue returns to Florida from teaching abroad, he's suspicious of the stranger now living with his beloved aunt. He makes it his mission to discredit Hope and disclose what he believes are her devious intentions. Hope can't help but feel the tension between them, but just below the surface lies an inexplicable attraction. With each passing day, Daniel finds it harder to deny his feelings, but before he can acknowledge them, he must face the pain of his past and resolve his issues with God. Can he lay his heart on the line, never knowing if someone else is out there, ready to reclaim his new-found Hope?
