Las genealogías (Alfaguara) (Spanish Edition) Margo Glantz

¿Conoce usted su origen? ¿De dónde vienen sus padres? ¿Sabe por qué tiene la religión que profesa? Preguntas similares responde Margo Glantz sobre su pasado y sigue el rastro de su familia en Las genealogías: “Mis padres nacieron en una Ucrania judía, muy diferente a la de ahora y mucho más diferente aún del México en que nací, este México, Distrito Federal, donde tuve la suerte de ver la vida entre los gritos de los marchantes de La Merced, esos marchantes a quienes mi madre miraba asombrada, vestida totalmente de blanco”. Margo Glantz desenmaraña los orígenes centroeuropeos de los Glantz, y los acompaña en su forzada peregrinación a principios del siglo XX, buscando mejores oportunidades de vida, hasta su arribo y asentamiento en México. Da testimonio de la epopeya de los suyos aún antes de que aquellos empezaran a ser lo que fueron, restaura olvidos, las huellas borradas de la forzada peregrinación, escribe con elegante soltura y rescata la formación de una identidad: mujer, judía y mexicana, a través de la entrevista a sus padres, de profundizar en la intimidad del hogar, del ejercicio de la memoria y de sus deseos adolescentes. Margo Glantz hace de Las genealogías su punto de partida y encuentra respuestas en esta monumental autobiografía familiar. ENGLISH DESCRIPTION Do you know your roots? Where your parents came from? Why you practice a certain religion? In Las genealogías Mario Glantz follows the trail of his past in a monumental family autobiography that untangles his Central European origins and family’s forced pilgrimage. “My parents were born in a Jewish Ukraine, very different from today’s and even more different to the Mexico I was born in, a Mexico City where I was fortunate to grasp life amidst the peddlers of La Merced, the same peddlers my mother, entirely dressed in white, stared at in wonder.”
