Meet Rain, the eldest and most dangerous of Baltimore's most feared crime family - the Porters. Honing their skills to perfection since their youth, the siblings were introduced to the intricate world of armed robbery, diamond heists, and murder by their mentor and confidant, Smitty. Fearless and daring, the Porter family pulled off dozens of licks, reaping millions over the years. Finally ready to leave the dirty life behind them, they are plotting their escape when, on the eve of their retirement, the unthinkable happens, changing Rain and her once close-knit family forever.

Every federal agency has closed in on them, and only Rain evades arrest. Alone, Rain wages an all-out war against the city of Baltimore in order to free her family, but a sudden turn of events makes her suicide mission to free them harder than she ever imagined.
