The unGuide to Dating: A He Said/She Said on Relationships Camerin Courtney, Todd Hertz
Christian singles, breathe a sigh of relief!

- Tired of couples married at 20 giving you advice on dating at 30 and beyond?
- Feel like you don't want to give up on dating-but don't have a choice?
- Want a book from someone who actually gets the difference between the high school and adult dating scenes?

At last, here's an honest look at the perils of Christian dating in the modern world. Written by singles for singles, this refreshingly funny book takes a unique, he said/she said look at the bewilderments of adult dating relationships.

How do you get out of a dating drought? What are the pros and cons of women making the first move? And what's the deal with all the new relationship fads targeting single adults? Camerin Courtney and Todd Hertz dive straight into the miry bog of Christian singledom to address these issues and more. They don't promise you a date in 30 days or less, but they do offer you hope and encouragement to help you navigate the pressures, trends, and temptations of dating as an adult.

Camerin Courtney is managing editor of Today's Christian Woman magazine, author of Table for One, and columnist for ChristianSinglesToday.com. Her suburban Chicago home is filled with Eiffel Towers, Starbucks' mugs from the many countries she's visited, and too many pictures of the wonderboy who made her Cool Aunt Cam.

Todd Hertz is an associate editor for Ignite Your Faith magazine, formerly Campus Life. He's a frequent contributor to ChristianSinglesToday.com and ChristianityTodayMovies.com. He lives in the Chicago area with a slowly dying plant, his own chocolate fountain, and a Monopoly-themed bathroom.
