Life needs momentum but needs buffer more: Success needs fastness but needs happiness more. Laying stress on process is a kind of healthy mental state, a kind of positive efforts as well as a kind of response to the world in a wise and careful way as your will. It might make your life journey more effective, elegant, and closer to the success full of happiness. There Must Be a Process to Success explains the theme as the book name said in eight views: “There is no shortcut to success”, “There must be a sign of successful operation”, “Who is in charge of the successful results”, “There is no myth in the successful investment”, “A successful business needs everyone’s help” and “There is no destination on the journey to success” and provides a medicine of clearing away the heart fire for those who seek quick success and instant benefits.
