The medieval cathedrals are one of the greatest achievements of English architecture. When entering one cannot but be immersed in the architectural grandeur, the drama of the space and shape, interactions between form and function, and a sense of the faith and divine purpose for which they were created. Because of their chequered history of building and rebuilding, from the Norman Conquest in 1066 through to the Dissolution and Reformation in 1539-41, they exhibit a wide variety of architectural styles, evolution and implementation - both within one building as well as between them - providing great scope for innovation and excitement in the creation of space and vision. Calvendo calendars are premium products - a bit more pricey than others but with added benefits: Our calendars always look beautiful on your wall because we produce them locally with premium paper and sophisticated spiral binding, ensuring easy turning of pages and flat hanging against the wall.
