Parenting Backwards is that manual that you've been looking for that didn't come with your kids at the start! A readable handbook that helps you to be purposeful about your parenting, thoughtful about your goals and supports you to follow through even when the going gets tough. Who do you want your kids to become? How many people actually think about that? Parenting Backwards helps you to clarify your mission as a parent and to implement it with ease all the while reminding you to have a good time because your time with your kids goes by so fast! We often feel as though we are falling short as parents, Parenting Backwards tells you what to say in some of those challenging moments when you're at a loss, but you know there's got to be a better way than what you're doing. Bette Alkazian, a mother of three daughters herself, has been working with parents for a long time and always has her eye on the goal – raising our kids to become amazing adults!
