O Cavaleiro de Bronze - O Portão Dourado (Portuguese Edition) Paullina Simons

No início da guerra, em 22 de junho de 1941, o dia em que Alexander e Tatiana se conheceram, havia três milhões de civis em Leningrado. Na primavera de 1942, apenas um milhão de pessoas permaneciam ali. E o cerco não havia terminado.

Depois de deixar Tatiana e Dasha Metanova dentro de um caminhão que seguia pela Estrada da Vida com destino a Molotov, Alexander não tinha nada além de esperanças. Não havia uma única correspondência sequer de Dasha ou Tatiana, nada que indicasse que ambas haviam chegado em segurança a seu destino.

Na segunda parte de uma das maiores sagas de amor de todos os tempos, será praticamente impossível conter a emoção ao acompanhar a busca obstinada do ilustre oficial do Exército Vermelho, Alexander Belov, por sua Tatia. E ainda mais arrebatador presenciar se eles conseguirão viver esse intenso amor diante de tantas ameaças, em meio ao cruel cenário da Segunda Guerra Mundial.
