Phantoms Afoot: Journeys into the Night (No-Eyes Series) Mary Summer Rain

Trade paperback published by the Whitford Press, 1st edition, 2nd printing, 1989. Customer reviews: (1)This book is a look at the authors shamanism coming into adulthood. This book is a look at how in Native American culture there is no veil between worlds and the author is helping out the otherside in a sometimes funny and a sometimes serious fashion. (2)You will never find better books on the paranormal than by Mary Summer Rain. (3)Not quite the same in regard to NA Indian sacred teachings, this was more on the assisting wayward spirits find rest, which many of us have done. I found the book to be humorous, and had me laughing out loud at some of the spirits she and Bill had to deal with. A good positive book for the folks that do this work, and for those just starting out on the path.
